

Presenters: _____

English 106 Sp. 05 Presentations

	English 106 Sp. 05 Presentations
	1	2	3	4	Points (1-4)
Organization	Audience cannot understand presentation because there is no discernible sequence of information.	Audience has difficulty following presentation because of lack of organization.	Team presents information in logical but rudimentary sequence which audience can follow.	Team presents information in logical, compelling sequence which audience can follow.
Subject Knowledge	Presentation and question response demonstrate no understanding of subject.	Presentation and question response demonstrate little understanding of subject.	Presentation and question response demonstrate solid command of subject.	Presentation and question response demonstrate mastery of subject.
Appropriateness for Audience	Presentation is inappropriate for audience and situation.	Team members use language unsuited for audience, superfluous or unhelpful visuals, or they present themselves inappropriately.	Team uses mostly appropriate language and visual presentation for audience and situation.	Team uses excellent language and visual presentation for audience and situation.
Tone	Presentation is completely read or completely unintelligible.	Team's manner of speaking is halting or distracting or team members mostly read from notes.	Team members refer to notes too often, breaking conversational tone.	Team maintains eye contact and delivers presentation in a clear, conversational fashion (NOT read from notes).
Partnership	All team members are ineffective.	One team member completely dominates the others or is completely ineffective.	Each team member does his or her part, but there is little evidence of working together.	Team members demonstrate effective teamwork, not just each person doing his or her part.	