

ENG 204-002: Service Learning Presentation Rubric

- A = Excellent presentations will respond to the client's needs, values and expectations appropriately; be within the time range; handled in a convincing and professional manner; be rehearsed, with all the necessary materials readily available. Presenters will make eye contact and engage the audience rather than read slides.
- B = Good presentations will respond to the client's needs, values and expectations appropriately; be within the time range; handled in a convincing and professional manner; not fully rehearsed, with all the necessary materials readily available.
- C = Average presentations will not fully respond to the client's needs, values and expectations appropriately; not fall within the time range; fail to fully convince the client; lack professionalism, with not all the necessary materials readily available.
- D = Poor presentations will not answer the client's needs, values and expectations appropriately; not fall within the time range; fail to convince the client; lack professionalism, with no materials readily available.